Sephora Accelerate brand deck

Founder: Madison Hunter

A ritual-based body care system

Maison Mélange reframes body care as ritual. Each formula is built around calming botanicals, barrier-supporting ingredients, and sensory textures designed to slow the pace of care and restore comfort to skin.

“The line is strongest when the products share one ingredient story, one sensory direction, and one operating logic.”

1

BOTANICAL APOTHECARY

Calendula infusion, nutrient-dense butters, and purposeful botanical oils chosen for function and comfort.

2

SENSORY RITUAL

Textures, aromas, and routines designed to feel restorative, calm, and elevated rather than utilitarian.

3

SKIN COMFORT

Barrier-focused hydration for dryness, sensitivity, and everyday nourishment.

Hero product: Whipped Botanical Body Butter

HERO MOISTURE SKU

A plush whipped body butter built around cupuaçu, shea, murumuru, cocoa butter, calendula-infused sweet almond oil, tamanu, jojoba, and oat beta-glucan.

Signature ingredient system

- Cupuaçu butter — plush hydration
- Shea butter — barrier support
- Murumuru butter — silky glide
- Calendula-infused sweet almond oil — soothing botanical base
- Oat beta-glucan — skin comfort active

What makes it feel elevated

A double-whipped process balances structure and softness, creating a rich texture that spreads easily without waxy drag and finishes with a plush, spa-like feel.

The Maison Mélange ritual

POLISH

Botanical Sugar Scrub

A texture-refining polish with a milky rinse and softer after-feel.

Glow + refined polish

SOAK

Luxury Oat Milk Bath Soak

A soothing, milky immersion built around colloidal oats and botanical powders.

Milky bath + comfort

SEAL

Whipped Botanical Body Butter

The final moisture step that cushions skin and locks in hydration.

Barrier feel + hydration

CORE CUSTOMER

A wellness-minded woman, roughly 22–40, who already invests in body care rituals, premium ingredients, gifting, and intentional self-care.

Marketing, education, and Sephora fit

Founder-led growth through ritual storytelling, ingredient education, and selective retail readiness.

- Ritual content

  Daily routines and self-care storytelling that make the system easy to discover and share.

- Ingredient education

  Calendula, barrier comfort, and botanical function framed for clear retail and digital education.

- Creator seeding

  Sampling and founder-led outreach to build social proof around texture, ritual, and results.

- Pop-ups + wellness events

  In-person touchpoints that translate sensorial product discovery into community connection.

- Selective retail readiness

  A concise hero-led assortment designed for prestige discovery, education, and repeat purchase.

Why Sephora Accelerate
